We Need A Lot More Guitars and A Lot Less Guns

In October of 2018 Sherwin filmed his first music video for his 1994 original anti violence song "We Need A Lot More Guitars and A Lot Less Guns." This event brought together over 20 Twin Cities guitar players from a wide range of genres for the filming at Willie's American Guitars in St. Paul. This song is anti-violence, not anti gun ownership. Sherwin's hope has always been that the song would be the tool that would cause a potential violent offender to rethink their actions.

We are excited to announce that Sherwin has signed an agreement to lease the song to Protect Minnesota and the Protect Minnesota Advocacy Fund. This organization works to prevent gun violence in Minnesota.

NTCMA President Bob Everhart presents Pam with the Rural Roots Music Commission's 2019 Folk / Country CD of the Year Award

In October Sherwin and Pam made a quick trip to Fremont, Nebraska where the Rural Roots Music Commission, a division of the National Traditional Country Music Association, awarded Pam's new CD, "Pam Linton - 40 - Love's Ring of Fire" their 2019 Folk / Country CD of the Year award. When Sherwin started in the music business 63 years ago he had no idea how important promoting his brand would become in sustaining longevity in his career. Sherwin and Pam still work diligently on marketing their show to new venues and events.

Back in the 1950's and 60's Sherwin did most of his own booking. After he had nationally charted records like "Cotton King" Sherwin's show was booked by major agencies like Acuff Rose in Nashville and the Harry "Hap" Peebles agency in Wichita, KS. By the late 60's these two agencies had Sherwin and his show booked at major fairs and concert performances nation-wide. In the early 1970's Sherwin developed my own agency and management team. He continued to be represented by Hap Peebles who kept his summers full playing 70-80 fairs a season. Since then Sherwin's agency has been a member of many mid-west fair and festival associations. These organizations hold annual conventions where Sherwin and his band would often showcase and contract engagement dates. This fall Sherwin & Pam came up with a new kind of showcase concept, a video showcase. They dug into archives of video footage and photos and with the help of their friend Dave at Twin Cities Video assembled a 12-minute video which gives potential buyers a look into the variety of entertainment The Sherwin & Pam Linton Show offers. We are posting this for friends and fans to view. We hope you enjoy it. If you know of a venue or event that may be interested in the Sherwin & Pam Linton Show please share this video and contact information with them. Let us know how you like it? We'll be excited to hear your thoughts!
